

GALE IN ENGLAND.

The Entire Country Swept by a Hurricane.

DAMAGE ALL ALONG THE COASTS.

Many Small Vessels Wrecked and a Number of Lives Have Probably Been Lost. Ocean Steamers Delayed, and Passengers Await Transportation—Communication Cut Off From Many Places.

QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 9.—A gale, which began on Monday, still continues with increased fury. All the buoys in Queenstown harbor have been shifted, some of them being driven a quarter of a mile from their positions.

The Daunts Rock lightship, having on board a crew of eight men, has broken adrift and is believed to have foundered, while the Roches Point lightship is not visible.

The Majestic, which left Liverpool Wednesday for New York, arrived here late yesterday and sailed again for New York at 6 p. m. The Majestic took 20 instead of 10 hours to run from Liverpool to Queenstown. She encountered terrific weather and reports that she saw nothing of the missing Daunts Rock lightship.

The Belgian steamer Pennland, which sailed from Liverpool Wednesday for Philadelphia via this port, has also failed to report here. Both vessels experienced the full force of the gale.

There are 500 passengers here awaiting steamers upon which to embark for New York and elsewhere.

REPORTS FROM LONDON.

Damage Done All Along the English, Irish and Welsh Coasts.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The storm has caused considerable damage at all points along the English, Irish and Welsh coasts, a number of casualties have already been reported and numerous vessels have been sighted flying signals of distress.

At Ilfracombe, Devonshire, the sea has washed away 100 feet of the wall fronting the Ilfracombe hotel; the lower part of the town was flooded, a number of houses being swamped.

At Porthcawl, the seas were 60 feet high and have been crashing over the breakwater.

Floods are also reported in various parts of Wales.

The Rhonda and Swansea Bay railroad in many parts is under six feet of water or washed away.

Unknown Schooner Lost.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 9.—An unknown schooner has been lost off Holyhead and her crew of five men were drowned.

CHOCTAWS' VOTES CANVASSED.

McCURTAIN Declared Elected and Sworn in as Governor.

TUSKALOOSA, I. T., Oct. 9.—The Choctaw council completed the canvass of the vote in the August election for governor yesterday. McCurtain received 1,405 votes and Jaxon 1,195.

McCurtain was sworn into office by Justice Everidge of the supreme court. Immediately after being sworn McCurtain delivered a message in line with the platform on which he made his campaign.

Every precaution had been taken to avert trouble. Army officers were called into the house while the count was being made and several soldiers were awaiting on the outside. This kept down an outbreak. When the soldiers appeared on the scene those who had made the threat that McCurtain should not take his seat left the capitol grounds in disgust.

Governor Gardner delivered a message just before retiring from the chief executive's chair, referring to the presence of the soldiers on the grounds in very uncomplimentary terms. He intimated that the Choctaw government was capable of attending to its own affairs.

The finances of the nation are in a shaky condition, the treasury is empty and the national warrants are almost worthless.

GEORGE H. SHERIDAN DEAD.

Soldier and Orator Dies at the Soldiers Home at Hampton, Va.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—News has been received here of the death yesterday at the Soldiers' home, Hampton, Va., of General George H. Sheridan, who was for years a notable figure in politics and ranked high as a Republican orator. He had a fine record as a soldier in the volunteer army and was for one term recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia.

Since his retirement from office he has figured on the lecture stage, mainly in attacks upon Ingersoll's religious theories. Of late years declining health and impaired faculties obliged him to seek refuge in the national soldiers' home at Hampton, and he fell a victim to softening of the brain.

Two Survivors From a Crew of Twelve.

HALIFAX, Oct. 9.—The Norwegian barque Ariadne, Captain Paulsen, from Grenick, in ballast for Bayverre, ran ashore between Green Cove, five miles east of Ingomish, Wednesday morning, during the easterly gale, and went to pieces immediately. The captain and nine of the crew were drowned. Christian Johnsen, the second mate, and a youth named Johnnie Ravenburg, are the only survivors of a crew of 12.

Dealt in Options.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The postoffice

department has revoked its order denying the privilege of the mails to F. D. Morgan, the Wall street broker, who dealt in options on gold and silver, contingent upon the coming national election.

GEORGIA ELECTION RETURNS.

The Closest Estimates Now Place the Democratic Majority at 33,129.

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—Advices received by The Journal from combined official and unofficial sources fix the Democratic majority at 39,129. This estimate is based upon the vote for Atkinson for governor which is in many cases less than that cast for the other statehouse officials. It is not believed that the final returns will materially alter this estimate.

The legislature is almost solidly Democratic in both branches, insuring the practically unanimous election of ex-Speaker Crisp to the senate to succeed Gordon.

Two constitutional amendments were voted on and both were carried overwhelmingly; one to provide for the increase of the supreme court from three to six justices and to provide for their election by the people, and the other to make the state school commissioner elective.

Returns From Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 9.—The returns to date of Tuesday's state election, embracing 491 out of the 632 precincts and all but about 4,000 of the total vote, are: Bloxham, Democrat, 24,577; Gunby, Republican, 7,576; Weeks, Populist, 3,962.

Complete returns for 29 counties of the 45 in the state, show a loss of 15 per cent in the total Democratic vote, as compared with 1892. The indications are that the total vote of the state did not exceed 40,500, of which Bloxham received about 27,250, as compared with 32,064 for Mitchell, Democrat, in 1892; Gunby, Republican, about 8,850, and Weeks, Populist, about 4,400. Bloxham's majority over all is about 14,000.

One Election Outrage.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 9.—As William Wilkerson and Deputy Sheriff Hogarth were on their way from Callahan to Fernandina with the ballot boxes and returns, they were overtaken in the woods by a party of five men and carried back to Callahan. Wilkerson was given five minutes to leave and the crowd tried to force Hogarth to confess to election frauds, threatening to kill him if he did not. He made a dash for liberty and reached his horse, but was caught and beaten. He was left for dead but managed to reach Fernandina during the night with his clothes torn and saturated with blood.

DU MAURIER DEAD.

The Famous Artist and Author Passes Peacefully Away.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—George Du Maurier, the artist and author, who has been suffering for some time with heart and lung troubles, is dead. His end was painless and he passed away surrounded by friends. The illness of Mr. Du Maurier was pathetic in the extreme. For days he has been hovering between life and death, at intervals conversing with his friends regarding his work. Upon one occasion a friend at the dying man's bedside referred to the success of "Trilby" as a book and as a play, whereupon Du Maurier replied: "Yes, it has been successful. But the popularity has killed me at last."

George L. P. B. Du Maurier was born in France in 1834. He became a naturalized British subject. Entered the University of London at the age of 17. He made his debut as an artist with contributions of sketches to London "Once a Week." Subsequently he joined the staff of "Punch." He wrote two novels, "Peter Ibbotson" and "Trilby." The latter was a great success. The story was dramatized and made an extraordinary hit, both in this country and in England. A new serial story, entitled "The Martian," is now running in one of the magazines.

IRON WORKS BOILER EXPLODES.

Two Persons Instantly Killed, Four Seriously Injured and a Score Hurt.

DANVILLE, Pa., Oct. 9.—A large boiler in the Reading iron works exploded last night, killing two persons instantly, seriously injuring four others and slightly injuring a score or more other persons at various points nearby.

The dead are: John Castleman and a small child of John Burns.

The seriously injured are: Thomas Cromwell, the mill manager; Robert Reid, Rush Yerrick and Clinton Major.

The boiler was 30 feet long and was one of the largest in the place. There was no warning of the explosion and the sound could be heard for a great distance. The pieces of iron were thrown in every direction, and some were hurled hundreds of feet.

The house of John Burns, close by, was completely demolished, and from the ruins were taken the bodies of his child and Castleman.

Several of those injured are in a serious condition and are not expected to live.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, but it is suspected that there was no water in the boiler or that it got too low.

May Settle the Strike.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Oct. 9.—After a session of the miners' union, lasting over four hours, Peter B. Turnbull was elected president. He takes the place of A. M. Burns, former president, who has mysteriously disappeared. Turnbull was vice president. It is said that with this change in executive officers there may be a settlement of the strike.

MINERS HOLDING OUT

No Agreement Reached on the Wage Reduction.

OPERATORS MUST LOSE SOME.

On No Other Terms Can There Be an Agreement—The Miners' Convention Still in Executive Session—Woman Suing For Damages—Peculiar Accident—Other Ohio State News Dispatches.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 9.—The state miners' convention is still in executive session, but no conclusion has been reached as to the wage reduction. It is reliably reported that, while the convention seems to be in a humor to accept a slight reduction, the operators will have to assume some loss of profits. On no other terms can there be an agreement.

The miners deny the report that President Penna of the national organization and President Ratchford of the state organization are giving the convention contradictory advice.

Woman Suing For Damages.

ELYRIA, O., Oct. 9.—Lida M. Hunter has begun a suit in the common pleas court against the Cleveland and Elyria Electric Railroad company asking $20,000 damages on account of injuries received July 9, 1896. While driving along the highway between Elyria and Ridgeville her horse became frightened and, as she claims, on account of the negligence of the servants of the company she was struck by a car. Among other injuries her leg was broken. She has become permanently disabled.

Peculiar Accident.

BELLAIRE, O., Oct. 9.—In the lower end of the city yesterday morning a tremendous gas explosion occurred. Gas was leaking from the main of the Wheeling Natural Gas company. A damage suit against the gas company will be brought by his relatives.

MAIL COACH HELD UP.

Mail Sacks Killed and the Stage Horses Stolen.

SANTA FE, Oct. 9.—A dispatch from San Antonio, N. M., states that the United States mail coach which left there yesterday morning was held up yesterday afternoon by masked men, 40 miles out. The mailsacks were cut open, rifled and the stage horses stolen. There were no passengers aboard. The coach was en route to White Oaks. The driver was left without conveyance and walked eight miles back to the station, whence the alarm was sent into San Antonio.

The west bound coach from White Oaks was due to pass this locality three hours later and it is believed it was also robbed. It is thought the highwaymen are the same who held up the Atlantic and Pacific railroad train west of Albuquerque a few days ago.

LOST ON THE LAKE.

Steamer Sanalac of Bay City and Crew of Eleven Men Are Missing.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 9.—The lumber barge Oneota, Captain M. J. Shoon of Bay City, master, was rescued from a most perilous position, near Erie, yesterday by a tug. The Oneota left Buffalo, light in tow of the steamer Sanalac, of Bay City, and of which Captain Robert Hanna was master. They were frightfully tossed for 48 hours.

Wednesday afternoon Captain Hanna let go the Oneota's lines and informed Captain Shoon that the Sanalac was sinking. As the air was full of snow and rain the steamer was soon lost to view. No tidings have been learned as to her whereabouts, and it is feared that Captain Hanna and his crew of 11 men are lost.

Again Charged With Murder.

WOODWARD, O. T., Oct. 9.—Temple Houston, a prominent politician, who was a delegate to the Chicago convention, yesterday shot and fatally wounded J. B. Jenkins. The trouble arose over the action of Jenkins in spitting in the face of Houston's son a few days ago. Houston is under arrest. One year ago yesterday Houston shot and killed J. B. Jennings in a saloon fight in this city. Houston escaped punishment on a plea of self-defense.

BANK CLOSED.

The Trusted Treasurer of the Institution Had Killed Himself.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 9.—At noon yesterday a notice was posted on the doors of the Cape Ann Savings bank, stating that the institution had been closed. Immediately came the shocking news that George J. Marsh, for more than a quarter of a century the trusted treasurer of the bank as well as treasurer and trustee for numerous large corporations and estates had shot himself at his summer home at Amisquam.

Late last night the bank officials stated that after a hurried examination no shortage could be found in Mr. Marsh's accounts with the institution, although the securities of the bank in Boston have not been examined. The trustees of the general hospital corporation, however, have a different story to tell. It appears from their statement that three months ago the trustees discovered that Mr. Marsh was insolvent and had been speculating heavily and lost considerable money. They called on him to produce the securities of the corporation and yesterday was set as the time when they should be turned over.

The trustees of the corporation are also directors of the bank, and the first intimation they had of any wrong was a note which Vice President Cunningham received upon entering the bank yesterday morning. The note was from Mr. Marsh and stated that his (Marsh's) dead body would be found in the cellar of his summer home at Amisquam.

Two messengers were at once dispatched to Amisquam, six miles distant, and when they arrived at the house, Mr. Marsh was heard walking about a room in an upper story.

The captain of his yacht, who is also janitor of the bank, was in the house, and on being informed of the contemplated suicide of his employer, went up stairs to prevent it. For some reason he came down again immediately and sent a messenger to Gloucester, but when he returned he found Marsh lying on the floor with a carbine in one hand and a revolver in the other. The top of his head was completely blown off, while on a table near was a note saying:

"If any one thinks this a cowardly act let him try it."

Marsh, who was a bachelor, lived the life of a recluse for many years. His home is on the extreme point of rocks almost inaccessible except by a narrow path, while there were no living rooms on the ground floor. It is known that he was very intemperate and during the past years had lost large sums in speculations. Nevertheless he had full run on the bank, attending to all investments as well as those of the numerous corporations and estates with which he was connected. He was treasurer of the Cape Ann Savings bank, of the Gilbert Home corporation, of the Gilbert hospital corporation and trustee of the Gilbert charity fund, the George H. Rogers' estate, the Fuller-Davis estate, the estate of Sarah M. Johnson and the Hildreth estate.

One of his bondsmen stated last night that Marsh's bond to the Gilbert hospital would probably cover the shortage, but it is rumored that his pecuniary condition from the other estates will be more than $100,000, the Hildreth estate being the principal sufferer.

The savings bank commissioners have closed their examinations of the books of Cape Ann Savings bank and reported that the funds of the bank were intact. The deposits amounted to $2,300,217.37 and the guarantee fund is $170,000. The directors state if there is a run on the bank they will take advantage of the 60-day clause.

A Party of Denver Miners to Engage in a Big Venture.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—A party of prominent Denver mining operators and capitalists are here on their way to Corea to engage in a big mining venture. The party includes L. L. Bailey and George Arthur Rice, all of Denver. With them are A. T. The members of the party have engaged passage on the steamer China, which sails today for the Orient.

DISSECT HIM ALIVE.

Dreadful Threat Made by a Young Wife Against Her Husband.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—A remarkable divorce case is pending in the courts here, having been brought from Princeton. William Jessop, one of the wealthiest and oldest men of that town, married a woman much younger than himself two years ago.

A year later he applied for divorce. He alleges that his wife, a pretty brunette of 25, soon after their marriage, began to chase him about with case-knives and stove hooks, at one time threatening to dissect him alive. The testimony is exciting.

As Jessop is supposed to have riches untold, his wife is demanding big alimony.

FLAG TORN TO SHREDS

Stars and Stripes No Protection In Turkey.

OUTRAGES IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Houses of American Missionaries Looted By Turkish Soldiers—An Indemnity Demanded by Minister Terrell, but Not Much Prospects of Success—A Letter From One of the Victims.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—Cablegrams from Constantinople during the present week have stated that United States Minister Terrell had demanded an indemnity from the Turkish government, with not much prospect of success, for the looting of the house of missionaries in Hasskeny during the recent massacres in Constantinople. A letter received in Boston states that the house of Mrs. Laura T. Seelye and Miss Martha J. Gleason was looted and a servant probably killed.

"When the crowd was seen coming," says the correspondent, "the servant hung the American flag out of the window and shouted, 'This is an American house!' The flag was pulled down, torn to shreds and trampled under foot. I wonder if this will stir Uncle Sam. I suppose not. The Jews of Hasskeny joined the Turks in the pillage, and we do not hear that the sultan is making a scapegoat of them. He has demanded $22,000 from the grand rabbi.

Not to Suppress Turkey.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Right Hon. C. P. Ritchie, president of the board of trade in the cabinet, speaking at Croydon, last evening, said that he was able to declare that the government policy was not to suppress the Turkish empire, but to co-operate with the powers to secure a better system of government with the European guarantees for both Christians and Mohammedans. "We are not going to launch a war," said Mr. Ritchie.

WOMEN SUSPECTED AS SPIES.

General Weyler's Latest Tactics For Carrying on the Cuban War.

HAVANA, Oct. 9.—The arrest of respectably connected Cuban women as political suspects or spies is becoming frequent in Sagua, Lagrande, Sancti Spiritus, Puerto Principe, Bayamo and Santiago de Cuba.

In Havana a well known Cuban author, Senora Dona Aurelia Gonzalez del Castillo, suspected of sympathy with the patriots, was Wednesday called to the palace and personally warned by Captain General Weyler to leave the island at once. A letter of condolence written by this woman to a New York relative of the late patriotic chief Sayas, upon the latter's death was intercepted by the Spanish postoffice officials here and turned over to the captain general.

In Cienfuegos Senorita Florinda Valdman, a leading Cuban society belle, is under military arrest.

REV. MR. KENT'S SPEECH.

It Was One of the Ablest Delivered Here
This Campaign—News From the Contest—Appointments.

Two of the strongest political speeches ever heard in Maysville have been delivered during the present campaign.

One of them was by Hon. H. H. Eddy, of Denver, and the other by Rev. Alexander Kent, pastor of the People's Church, Washington, D. C.

The latter spoke at the court house last night. Nearly every seat was occupied, and many stood in the aisles near the doors.

Many who had the pleasure of hearing both Mr. Eddy and Mr. Kent pronounce the latter's speech the better and stronger of the two, and that is saying a great deal for Mr. Kent, because Mr. Eddy is unquestionably one of the ablest speakers who ever addressed a Maysville audience.

Mr. Kent dwelt at some length on the gold standard, gave a logical and very plain explanation of it, and quoted from learned writers both here and in England showing that the value of gold had been greatly enhanced by the demonetization of silver, and as a result prices of commodities had been forced down. He said that the United States would not only benefit her own people by remonetizing silver, but would help humanity the world over; and he believes this country is able to restore free coinage without waiting for the consent of other nations. On this point he quoted from the distinguished German political economist Otto Ahnert, who in a recent letter expressed the conviction that the United States of all nations was able to adopt and maintain independent bimetalism; that her action would capture the trade of silver using countries the world over, and eventually force other nations to restore bimetalism.

Mr. Kent quoted from recent speeches of ex-President Harrison and Major McKinley showing that the views of these Republican leaders are wholly at variance on some of the most important points at issue.

Mr. Kent frequently received the most enthusiastic applause, and his tribute to William Jennings Bryan was loudly cheered.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

The Importance of the House to House Visitation Urged Upon All—Figures of Interest.

The house-to-house visitation of Mason County is to be made Saturday, October 31, 1896. Are you ready to help? The teachers of the public schools have kindly consented to enter into the work but they will need your assistance.

The following statistics will show how important it is to have a general awakening along the lines of Sunday school work. The cause is being carried on with no regard to creed or sect:

	1896.	1895.
White population of Kentucky.....	1,710,303	1,701,794
Total No. in Sunday school.....	246,284	211,176
Total No. not in Sunday school.....	1,464,019	1,490,618
Adult membership 25.45 per cent. or 63,541.
While population of school age.....	611,583
Total No. in Sunday school of school age.....	182,743

Adult population.....	1,095,720
Adult Sunday school members.....	63,541
Adult population not in Sunday school.....	1,032,179

Do not these figures show that the Sunday schools of Kentucky need new life? Do they not show that the work needs to be pushed with greater energy and zeal? Give the teachers of the public schools and their representatives your hearty support and let us make this visitation the key-note of the Sunday school campaign. Any person desiring any information about this work can do so by applying to me.

NOTES.

The celebrated Maysville band is discoursing sweetest music.

Judge Wall, of Maysville, is shaking hands with his many friends.

And whole souled Billy Smoot, another of the old reliable Presidents, is shaking hands with the people and enjoying the fair.

Leslie Mannen, one of the former Presidents, from the city of Galena, Kan., big and smiling as ever, arrived Thursday to take in the fair.

Will Johnson, our former Treasurer, is out enjoying all the good things, while Joe Walton, although a benedict, has not forgotten to call around at the Secretary's offices and looks as natural as life.

The new Secretary, J. R. Walton, fits as nicely into his office as if he had been in it all his life, but then the old reliable never makes a mistake in her officers nor her premiums.

A Banker For Bryan.

VANCEBURG, Ky., Oct. 8.—G. W. Stampert, President of the Vanceburg bank, has announced for Bryan. He employs a large number of men.

Insist on having just what you call for when you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier and nerve tonic.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS FARLEY, of Lee street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine ten-pound daughter at their home last night.

Mrs. MINERVA A. HUGHES, widow of the late George Hughes, of Springdale, has been granted a pension of $8 a month from October 22, 1895. John Walsh, attorney.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

OUR PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR.

[This poem is contributed to the Maysville BULLETIN by John B. Lewis, a Lewis County boy, who has lived nearly twenty years in the West and has always been a staunch Republican.]

Within Columbia's Palace fair,
There sits in state a massive chair,
The sacred memories which cling
About it as a hallowed thing
Have caused it to be set apart
And cherished in the country's heart,
As the high summit and the crown
Of earthly honor and renown.

From Washington, first of our sons,
A long line of illustrious ones
Have graced in turn this chair of state,
And carved their names among the great;
And many great ones all in vain
Have strove its honors to attain,
But yet the country holds them dear,
And ever shall their names revere.

There is a fixed and changeless law,
As ever Medea or Persa saw,
That none shall ever reach this chair
Except this country wills him there;
And all the efforts and the schemes
Which shape the politician's dreams,
Can never make a "favorite son,"
Except the country makes him one.

Until the people's high acclaim
Shall place him in that chair of fame;
And once again has come that hour
When gathering force, the people's power
Is massing its resistless strength,
Throughout the country's breadth and length,

To give effect to their decree,
Which has gone forth from sea to sea,

That choice is made of a "favorite son,"
Who for the next four years shall run
This government and its affairs;
W. J. Bryan is the name he bears:
In loyalty unto this land
No chief has ever held command
Who better strives with sword of tongue,
Than he who sings his war note song.

To help her weather every blast,
And keep his country's honor fast;
His name alone is worth a host,
In galing back her prestige lost:
It seems to bear a magic spell,
That for our country augurs well,
And even things inanimate,
Join in and celebrate.

Industry lifts her drooping head,
The wings of Commerce wide outspread,
From shop and factory and farm,
Stagnation's ghost flies in alarm,
At sound of the increasing roar,
That bears his name from shore to shore:
"Old Glory" Jolus the general glee,
And banners his banners wide and free.

As though she gave in speaking voice,
Her glad approval to the choice;
The people seem to know and feel
That, in his loyalty and zeal,
They have the surest guaranty
To bring back true prosperity,
There is no senseless wild campaign,
Of demagogues for spoils and gain.

A mighty people as one man,
A unit in design and plan,
Have risen in determined might,
To set our dear loved country right;
And under stained Bryan's lead,
All loyal to his glorious creed,
Will plant our standard once again,
To float above our working men.

And once again this teeming land
Touched by the true magician hand
Of patriot who knows her worth
Shall take her place the "first of earth."
Through every artery and vein
The quickening life shall pulse again,
Glad patriotism shall renew
The people's pledge to labor due,
And while Bryan is on guard,
Prosperity be Toll's reward.

Mr. Cleveland Passes Through New York.
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—President Cleveland arrived in this city shortly after 6 o'clock last night on E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Onida from Greenwich, Conn. Mr. Cleveland landed at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street. He was accompanied by Dr. Bryant, his family physician, and Private Secretary Thurber. The president entered a carriage and was driven to Dr. Bryant's home, where he dined. Mr. Cleveland left for Washington on the midnight train from Jersey City.

Dashed His Child's Brains Out.
NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 9.—Edward Wurga, a laborer, who had been drinking for some time, came to his home intoxicated yesterday afternoon and seized his 8-months-old child by the feet, dashed it to death on the floor. His wife was absent at the time and a neighbor who had been caring for the infant had left it temporarily. After committing the murder Wurga seized his 6-year-old son and fled. He is still at large.

Finishing Out About the Planets.
BOSTON, Oct. 9.—A dispatch received here from Lowell Observatory, Fla., announces that the astronomers of the observatory have discovered that the planets Mercury and Venus each turn once on its axis during one revolution about the sun, making the day just equal to the year on the planets. They find further that Venus is not cloud-covered as has been supposed, but has about it a thick atmosphere, while Mercury has none.

Going Back to Texas.
WOODSTOCK, Ont., Oct. 9.—Underwood, who is wanted in Houston on a charge of murder, has not availed himself of the 15 days' allowance to appeal from the judge's order of extradition. He was handed over to Detective Walsh, who has left with him for Houston.

"One Man to One Vote."
MELBOURNE, Victoria, Oct. 9.—The assembly after an all-night sitting passed the second reading of the bill, establishing female suffrage and "one man to one vote."

Woman's Diseases

Are as peculiar as unavoidable, and cannot be discussed or treated as we do those to which the entire human family is subject. Menstruation sustains such important relations to her health, that when suppressed, irregular or painful, she soon becomes languid, nervous and irritable, the bloom leaves her cheek and very grave complications arise unless regularity and vigor is restored to these organs.

Bradfield's Female Regulator

What the New Education Is.

We have been much interested in trying to find out whether there is any such thing as a new education. The professors claim there is. They say now there is not only an education, but a study of education. We observe that the more learned and famous they are the more they bemoan when they try to tell us just what the new education is. Perhaps this is only natural, since the more learned a man is the more long words he will be familiar with and the more he will be tempted to lug them into his lectures and to talk over our heads.

A good specimen of this sort of clawing after the infinite and the inexpressible is seen in a paper by Professor Nicholas Murray Butler. Professor Nicholas Murray Butler begins in this promising way: "There are three avenues of approach to the study of education and in each of them the evolutionary point of view is not only illuminating but controlling. These three avenues are the physiological, the psychological and the sociological." We defy anybody living to make out from Professor Murray Butler's alleged explanation of these statements what he means by them. We leave them therefore in a fog and pass on to another cheerful announcement. It is that at present there is a widespread interest in "two psychological doctrines of the greatest importance to all teachers—namely, the doctrine of apperception and the doctrine of interest."

In the name of the human race and of common sense we protest against this rubbish which is lately filling educational magazines. It will befog and disgust really conscientious teachers; it will tend to make vain and shallow ones think they know something when they do not. If these foggy old gentlemen mean by psychology that every teacher should study carefully the peculiar tendencies and mental and moral and physical characteristics of each pupil and try to develop each one's powers of observation and reasoning, then let them say so in plain English. Until they do they will never make the ordinary intelligent person believe they really know anything at all.

Plug Tobacco Trust.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—An effort is being made again by the representatives of English capitalists to acquire the properties of all manufacturers of plug tobacco in this country in order to form a plug tobacco trust. All that prevents the consummation of the deal, so it is said, is the refusal of one of the largest manufacturers to set a price on his property.

Tuppers' Golden Wedding.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 9.—The celebration of the golden wedding of Sir Charles and Lady Tupper, which took place here yesterday afternoon and evening was the social event of the season. Sir Mackenzie Bowell presented the center piece of gold which was the gift of senators, and George Taylor had charge of the Conservative members' present which was a golden salver.

Many Lives Were Lost.

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 9.—The great fire at Guayaquil, Ecuador, is believed to have been of incendiary origin. Some arrests have been made. Many people lost their lives during the conflagration and the losses are now estimated at $50,000,000 acres. ($54,400,000).

BASE BALL ENDED.

Cleveland's Never Got a Game of the Temple Series.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 9.—The fourth and final game of the Temple cup series base ball games may well go on record as a hard fought contest. That Baltimore got so much the better of the run-making was entirely due to the fact that Corbett was too much for Cleveland. For infelding the game was magnificent on both sides and honors were easy. Cuppy pitched a strong game, but toward the end hits were bunched on him and Baltimore earned the victory well.

Corbett not only held the Spiders down to four singles, but he struck out six men and was so steady that in his only bad box he got away from trouble after men were on second and third with nobody out. This was in the fifth and was the only time Cleveland threatened to score.

Attendance, 2,000. Score:
AT CLEVELAND— R H E
Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 4 1
Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 2 3 x—5 11 1
Batters—Cuppy and Zimmer; Corbett and Robinson. Umpires—Emslie and Sheridan.

SCHOONER LAURA MISSING.

Forty-Nine Days Since She Sailed Away Into the Unknown.

GALVESTON, Oct. 9.—No tidings have yet been received from the American schooner Laura, which sailed from New York for Galveston on Aug. 19. She is now 49 days out. The chances are that her fate will remain one of the mysteries for which the sea is famous.

The Laura was chartered by the Benner line. Agents here have practically given the vessel up as lost, and merchants who had freight on her are duplicating their orders. So far as heard the ship has not been officially posted as missing, but there seems to be little question about her being lost.

UNBALANCED HIS MIND.

Here Is the Latest Hard-Luck Story About an Insane Farmer.

SHARON, Pa., Oct. 9.—James Bentley, a farmer living near here, got an idea that a sandbank on his farm contained gold. The worry unbalanced his mind.

A year ago he sued Mark A. Hanna & Company for $1,000,000 for sand taken for use in the Sharpesville iron furnace, alleging that Mark extracted the gold from the sand. He lost the suit. He appealed, and lost again. The costs were assessed against him. He is unable to pay, and the sheriff will sell his farm, sandbank and all, at auction, on Oct. 19, to satisfy a judgment for cost.

Twenty Rounds to a Draw.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 9.—Johnny Lavack, 123 pounds, of Cleveland, and Australian Billy Murphy, 114 pounds, fought 20 rounds to a draw here last night before the Navarro Athletic club. The fighting was heavy throughout. Murphy broke his hand in the 16th round and Lavack's jaw was broken in the 14th. In the preliminaries, Otto Jones of Lexington, 105 pounds, got the decision over Chic Brooker of Cincinnati, 95 pounds, in a 10-round fight.

Bank Robbed.

OMAHA, Oct. 9.—The Bank of Clanton, in the northern part of Gage county, was entered by burglars last night, the safe blown open and $1,500 carried away. The thieves stole a team from the German minister near town and got away with the team and booty.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
